Autism cases and infant exposure to mercury in vaccinations both increased dramatically in the 1990s.

Mercury was gradually removed from infant and maternal vaccinations between August 1999 and Nov 2002 (infant) or 2003 (maternal).

Source: Environmental Working Group.